Overview

There are 50 one bedroom and 18 two bedroom apartments, each with its own private lounge, bathroom and fitted kitchen.

“I have made new friends and it is easy to get into town.”

There are also two guest suites available on site for the use of visiting family and friends.

If you want to socialise then there are two communal lounges and a varied and active array of activities on offer including bingo, afternoon tea, jumble sales, karaoke, trips out and entertainment.

There's a parade of shops nearby including a chip shop, newsagent and post office. Or Armada Court is a just a five minute bus journey from Hinckley Town Centre with its bustling range of independent and national shops, a multi-screen cinema, library, parks, bars and restaurants as well as a newly built, £15million leisure centre offering a wide range of activities

Nuneaton, Coventry and Leicester are also easily accessible by bus or you can catch a train from nearby Hinckley station and be in Birmingham in under 45 minutes.
